

Preceptor Pipeline Survey Questions

1. What is your name:
2. What is your email:
3. What is your profession
 - NP
 - PA
 - Physician
4. Are you currently precepting a student?
 - Yes
 - No
 - 4a. If yes, what type of student? (check all that apply)
 - MD
 - NP
 - PA
5. Have you precepted in the past?
 - No
 - Yes – pre-COVID & during COVID
 - Yes – pre-COVID (not since March 2020)
 - Yes – during COVID only (started after March 2020)
- 6a. If No: What are your barriers to precepting?
 - Not interested
 - RVUs decrease with precepting
 - Organization will not allow
 - New clinician
 - Not comfortable teaching
 - Concern about patient reaction to learners
 - Reduced practice efficiency
 - Other
 - o Please specify:
- 6b. If Yes – pre-COVID (not since March 2020): What are your barriers to returning to precepting?
 - RVUs decrease with precepting

- Low patient volume
- Lack of comfort teaching in a telehealth model
- Increased external pressures (e.g., Virtual learning for children, practicing from home,)
- Practice not open/Uncertainty of practice sustainability
- Other
 - Please specify

6c. If Yes – during COVID: Are there any new challenges to precepting students since the COVID pandemic?

- Yes
- No
 - If yes, please specify
 - Low patient volume
 - Lack of comfort teaching in a telehealth model
 - Increased external pressures (e.g., Virtual learning for children, practicing from home,)
 - Uncertainty of practice sustainability

7. For all responses to question #5 above: Would you be interested in any of the following to support precepting in a telehealth setting?

- Training on the use of technology
- Training on how to incorporate students into the workflow
- Training on how to teach and provide feedback remotely
- Mentorship by provider experienced in precepting in telehealth
- Other
 - Please specify

8. If you are interested in precepting 2021 or learning more about precepting please provide your name and email below.

9. Please provide any other comments or feedback you would like to share regarding precepting.